NEVADA TREASURER RESPONDS TO GOVERNOR'S ESA FUNDING PROPOSALS

Carson City, NV. – State Treasurer Dan Schwartz responded to the ESA funding proposals that Governor Brian Sandoval included in today's State of the State address.

"We, of course, appreciate the Governor including $60 million towards funding ESAs in his remarks today," Schwartz said. "The number is low; especially considering all those parents that we believe will apply once the uncertainty is removed. The Treasurer's Office looks forward to working with the Governor and the Legislature in making parental choice a reality and improving K-12 education in Nevada."
